

YELLOWSTONE RESOURCES & ISSUES

2003

Division of Interpretation

•

Yellowstone National Park

*Produced by the Division of Interpretation, Yellowstone National Park, Mammoth Hot Springs, Wyoming.
All material is in the public domain unless noted below.*

Cover photo: Fishing Cone, West Thumb Geyser Basin (NPS photo)

*Most photographs (including cover) from Yellowstone National Park collection. Individuals or organizations contributing photos:
p. 35, 41 (center), 70, 71, 139 (both), 185, Carolyn Duckworth; 43, 135, Thomas Brock; 44 (bottom), UWS/UWM Great Lakes Water
Institute; 58, Jennifer Whipple; 90, 97, 101, Tom Cawley; 93, 94, Toni K. Ruth/Hornocker Wildlife Institute and Wildlife Conservation Society; 168, Frank Smith.*

Most maps and illustrations produced by the staff of Yellowstone National Park, including the Spatial Analysis Center, or are from other National Park Service sources. Exceptions: 21, adapted from map that first appeared in Yellowstone Science, Fall 2001; 38–40, courtesy of Robert Smith, from his book, Windows Into the Earth (co-authored with Lee J. Siegel; 2000; Oxford Press); 45, illustrations adapted from originals by Dr. Lisa Morgan, U.S. Geological Survey; 57, illustration reprinted from Yellowstone in the Afterglow (Mary Ann Franke; 2000; NPS); 117, 121, first appeared in Yellowstone Science Volume 7, Issue 1 (Winter 1999).

Other contributors and acknowledgments listed on page 187.

CONTENTS

2003

Introduction.....	7	2 Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem.....	31
The Beginning of an Idea	7	Geoecosystem	31
Today's National Park System	8	Biological Diversity	33
NPS Mission Statement	9	Cycles & Processes	33
YNP Mission Statement	10	Winter	34
100th Anniversary of Arch	10	Ecosystem Management Challenges .	36
Park Facts	11
Frequently Asked Questions	12	3 Geology.....	37
1 History of the Park.....	19	Plate Tectonics	37
The Earliest Human Visitors	19	Volcanoes	38
Increased Use	20	The Hydrothermal System	40
The Little Ice Age	22	Color & Life in Hydrothermal Areas .	43
Historic Tribes	22	Beneath Yellowstone Lake	44
"Sheep Eaters"	22	Earthquakes	46
European Americans Arrive	23	Glaciers	47
Expeditions	23	Sedimentation & Erosion	48
Birth of a National Park	24	Fossils	49
The Formative Years	25	Yellowstone As Laboratory	50
The Army Arrives	26	4 Vegetation.....	53
The National Park Service Begins . .	27	Major Types	53
Boundary Adjustments	28	Effects of Disturbances	54
The 1940s	28	Trees	56
Mission 66	28	Endemics	58
From Managed to "Natural"	29	Exotics	59
Complex Times	29	5 Fire	61
The Legacy of Yellowstone	30	Fire Ecology	61
		Fire Management	62
		The Fires of 1988	64
		Results of Research	68
		contents continue

6	Wildlife	73	8	Park Issues	133
A.	Mammals			Bioprospecting.	133
	List of Mammals in Yellowstone	73		Bison Management	136
	Small Mammals	76		Fisheries: Lake Trout.	141
	Bear, Black	83		Fisheries: Whirling Disease	143
	Bear, Grizzly	84		Grizzly Recovery Plan.	145
	Bears, Comparison	85		Grizzly Conservation Strategy	148
	Bears, Management History	86		Northern Range	150
	Beaver	88		Winter Use.	153
	Bighorn Sheep.	89		Wolf Restoration	160
	Bison.	90	9	Major Areas of the Park	165
	Cats: Bobcat & Lynx.	92		Canyon	165
	Cougar.	93		Lake & Fishing Bridge	168
	Coyote.	95		Madison/West Entrance.	171
	Deer, Mule & White-tailed	96		Mammoth Hot Springs	173
	Elk.	97		Norris	176
	Fox	99		Old Faithful.	179
	Moose	101		Tower–Roosevelt.	182
	Pronghorn	103		West Thumb & Grant	184
	Wolf	105
	B: Birds	107
	C: Fish	113
	D: Reptiles & Amphibians	117
7	Cultural Resources	125
	Archeology	125
	Cultural Landscapes	126
	Ethnography	126
	Tribal Affiliates	126
	By Word of Mouth	127
	Historic Structures & Districts.	128
	Collections.	131
	Cultural Resource Laws.	131

In this book, you will find concise information about the park's history, natural resources, cultural resources, issues, and major areas. This material was provided and reviewed by park researchers, resource specialists, and staffs of Planning, Public Affairs, and Interpretation.

Organization of Chapters:

- Summary box containing key facts.
- Main text providing overview of subject.
- Resource list for more information.

Some material is repeated in the book to accommodate users with varying needs.

New in 2003:

Introduction: new sections on NPS, international cooperation, reorganization of FAQ

Ch. 4: Vegetation, rewritten

Ch. 6: Cougar section expanded; Bird section revised

Ch. 9: New sections: Norris, Madison/West Yellowstone

Updating the Information

Information about Yellowstone constantly changes; the information provided here is current as of March 2003. You can find updates and comprehensive information on the park website (www.nps.gov/yell), in park publications and exhibits, or by asking the park's interpretive rangers who staff the visitor centers.

We welcome your feedback and comments.

